THE BEGINNING--

Back in 1887, at a place called St. Joseph in Randolph Township, Portage County, Ohio a baby was born.

The baby's parents were Joseph W. Huth and his wife Barbara, formerly, Barbara Ann Dussel. This was their ninth child.

It is said that Joseph and Barbara were very much in love. Some say "that never before did a Prince and Princess or a King and Queen or any saintly lovers ever experience a more endearing love than that shared by Joseph and Barbara Huth."

On the morning of July 18, Joseph, who was by anyone's standards a confident and courageous man, had an overwhelming feeling of extraordinary confidence that this day was going to be special. Joseph was a very religious man. He prayed often--he asked his Heavenly Father for wisdom and patience and guidance in his daily affairs. he prayed for others, for peace and good will and prosperity for all mankind. But most of all he prayed that God's Will be done. This day was no exception--he prayed. He gave thanks that God willed him such good fortune--especially today. On this morning he gave thanks for the perfect birth of a perfect baby--for he knew it would be so. Throughout this day, Joseph was more than generous with understanding and consideration for Barbara. his tender words and gentle touch gave her comfort. His confident smile gave her strength.

On this special day, Barbara gave birth to a baby boy. She was assisted by a midwife rather than a doctor as was customary in those days. The midwife cleaned the baby, inspected him thoroughly, and pronounced him to be perfect. There was great joy and cause for celebration--for God's Will was done. Barbara and Joseph named their new born baby boy Henry Nicholas.

That was the beginning!

WHAT'S THIS ALL ABOUT

Ideas are like light--some are dim and weak and fade into the dark surrounding space of insignificance. Others are strong and bright and burn well into the dawn of a new desire. A desire that demands fulfillment, a desire that lights the path of creative circumstances leading to perfect fulfillment.

That's what this is all about--a bright idea.

On a recent visit to the old Hometown, Akron, Ohio, brother Albert or Aphonse (no one seems to know for sure) and in some places known as "Fat Albert" (no one seems to know why) had a bright idea.

While in a serious, thoughtful mood Al suggested that we should have a Henry and Laretta Huth sibling and spouse emergency fund. Hank agreed that this was a great idea that was long overdue and suggested a $50.00 initial with $20.00 monthly contributions. From small acorns "tall oaks" grow. Ted insists that the contributions need not be limited to a maximum or minimum amount but no matter how large or small or not at all, the contributions must be voluntary, but distribution must never be subject to contributions made. A method to determine an emergency need has not yet been formulated. As a temporary measure, a committee consisting of any 5 of the 8 family members living in close proximity to Akron (as a matter of convenience) will meet and the decision of 3 out of 5 will be final. In the event a meeting cannot be arranged then communication by telephone is deemed to be proper and acceptable. Each contributor will receive a monthly accounting of the total fund and his, hers, or their contribution to the total fund. However, no one will be informed of any others contribution or non-contribution unless the contributor grants permission for disclosure of that information.

As is always the case there will be obstacles to overcome, but each and every one of the many details, legal ramifications and governmental regulations will be resolved along the well-lighted path of determination and creative circumstances--this is a Bright Idea that will burn for generations to come in loving memory of the magnificent Henry and Laretta Huth.

This family information and good news letter is an offshoot of the fund. Since every family member will receive a fund status report monthly, why not take advantage of an opportunity to keep in touch and bring us even closer together. Keep us informed of events or happenings in your family, community, city, state or wherever you happen to be, have been or wish you were.

A CLOSER LOOK

In researching our heritage, valuable statistical information regarding our ancestry, such as date and place of birth, marriage, death etc., can be obtained from a variety of sources (in most cases). Although this information is valuable and sometimes interesting, there are many voids and blank spaces to be filled in if we are to really know and understand our ancestors.

Traditions, teachings and experiences affect attitudes, which affect emotions -- these elements of life interact, trade places and change along with time and circumstance and determine the outcome of life--theirs, ours, and those yet to come. So it seems that a greater understanding of ourselves might be gained by a greater understanding of those who impact our lives--including our ancestors. Compassionate understanding breeds love which results in contentment, peace and joy--the ultimate goal.

To that end we will be spotlighting a family member each month. Perhaps this "Closer Look" at each family member will reveal some human elements from the lives of our ancestors and fill in some of the voids and blanks for us, but more importantly for future generations that may be interested.

Christmas is Love

*One night in Bethlehem
In a long ago year,
When the air was crisp
And the sky was clear,*

*A little tiny baby
Was brought from above,
For Mary and Joseph
To hold and to love.*

*The Day was Christmas
As you all know.
The baby was Jesus
And boy! did he grow.*

*He became a man
Who would sacrifice all
To save all the people
If they should fall.*

*He helped all of those
Who could not fare
He made miracles happen
Amidst despair.*

*He gave his life
In his father's name
he was good to all people
In hopes we'd be the same.*

*He hoped that we'd be Kind and true.
That we'd remember others
In all that we do.*

*That we'd not find what's missing
Or dwell on the past
But that we'd see what we've got
And make it last.*

*That we'd feel blessed
For all of the love
We get from our families
And from God above.*

*So this Christmas Day,
Remember the tale
Of a man's love for us
That never can fail.*

*And if you should be down
Or feeling blue
Remember your family
Who's love is always true.*
