Family Meeting

April, 1998: Meeting at Dan and Karen Huth's gave family members a chance to view the artifact crafted by Joseph Huth in 1904. Restoration by Henry Huth (11), involved many tedious hours with outstanding results. A plaque and final presentation to St. Joseph Church will give this family heirloom a permanent home.

Participation

Reunion offers of help keep coming in and will make this year's activities fun for all. Jeff Waltz (4) will be cooking ribs etc. outdoors; Gwen Barnick (10) volunteered to do e-mail listings; Anita Moody (2) offered to help in the kitchen; Eric Huth, (12) used to rising early in the morning, will assist the breakfast crew; Barbara Hill (9) has contributed helpful ideas via numerous phone calls; Greg Mercer (12) and Drew Benson (12) will assist with the recreation/activity plans; Dan DiCenzi (7) will contribute his photography talent to the reunion group pictures. Lots to do, and fun things to take part in brings family together for another great year!

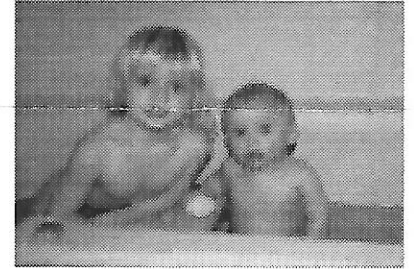

Congratulations

Heather Davis (1) and Dan Gallagher became Mr. and Mrs. on May 30, 1998. Grandmother, Pauline Yingling and Aunt Marian Holibaugh (4) traveled with friends to attend the North Carolina wedding celebration.

Wedding bells will ring again for Anita Moody (2) and Jim Moody, as they repeat their vows on July 11. Their family will gather for the remarriage; including daughter, J. Gayle Hart, her husband Dennis, and children Amanda, Ashley, and Christopher. The Harts will be traveling from Tuscon, Arizona and plan on attending the Huth reunion while they are in town. It's been seven years since they have been home, making this the childrens' first Huth reunion. A memorable July for the Moody family should make an exciting and wonderful time for all.

A Belated Wish

We would like to say that occasionally we omit someone from the birthdays' list just to test you. We would like to say that; however instead we must acknowledge that it was our omission of Jacob Vuillemin (3) not listed in the 1997 Directory, which is used for The Acorn's birthday section. We wish Jacob a belated fourth birthday! Incidentally, Jacob's May 15 birthday was also the birthdate of his great-grandfather, John Ernest Vuillemin, born exactly 100 years before Jacob.

Keeping Track

Promotions, moves, and new jobs are overwhelming family members with the thrill of packing, unpacking and adjusting to new environments.

1. Neal Ryan's (12) new job with an advertising agency takes him, Dana and their two labs, Thor and Odin to their new home in Michigan. Dana's current employment involves some traveling until they get officially settled.
2. Kristin Dowling (10) recently accepted the position of Regional Manager of Kinko's in Columbus, Ohio. Steve and Jack will settle with Kristin after closing out their Pennsylvania ties. Steve's employment will continue with Kinko's as Technology Manager for the Columbus/Cincinnati area.
3. Eric Huth (12) took a new position in Strongsville, Ohio with Johnson Controls, as their Supplier Quality Engineer.
4. Del Delcambre (7) moved his family across the state of Texas.

Did you know that accross the USA our family members live in 14 different states?

Table Talk Tidbits

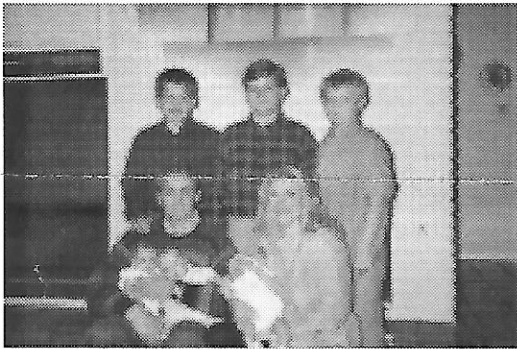

OUCH: Thomas Rothwell (2) can thank his lucky stars, after an auto accident in April. T.J. as he is called, is up and about after sustaining a broken neck.

Kurt Huth (6) is claiming the reunion shade tree nearest the rib cook, giving his body some needed relaxation. In May, Kurt suffered numerous injuries resulting from a motorcycle crash.

LONDON: Dana Huth (12) and Neal Ryan spent some time in London after packing and saying goodbye to Chicago. Dana, since her graduation from Purdue University, spent over thirteen years in Chicago.

MOROCCO VACATION: Henry and Sally Huth (11) shared some special family time with her mother and brother, while all enjoyed a fabulous time in Morocco.

THE DELCAMBRE FAMILY (7): Word has it that Mom, Dad, the boys and triplets will be traveling to this year's events. Most of us will meet the triplets for the first time.

The Delcambre Family

Please arrive early at the Saturday reunion for the a.m. photo session. We hope to have everyone recorded as 1998 Huth Reunion participants.

What Family Reunions Mean to Me...

by Juanita Moody (2)

Each reunion is always an exciting event. I look forward to each one, every year. Trying to make sure all of my family members attend. I can remember the ones when I was little, always glad to see our cousins, especially our aunts and uncles. Our aunts always seemed to fuss, even if we just saw them. Our uncles, (the boys) would usually get a little loud in their discussions. We would always come home tired and full of good food. Sometimes the grown-ups would be angry, but we all knew that we would be back next year. That is what family is, loving one another, sticking by through thick and thin. I never got tired of the stories being told, and I love to look at the pictures over and over again, and don't forget the wonderful food we always had, sometimes too much, but always prepared with love. Our children and all of the future generations need to know our roots, and try to keep the traditions. I think we should all give thanks for our wonderful family.

ACORN NOTE: Keep your "What family reunions mean to me..." coming, this should be a continuing response.

E-MAIL LISTINGS: Gwen Barnick (10) will be compiling e-mail addresses for interested family members. This will be a separate listing from the Directory. Gwen intends to enter and furnish frequent e-mail changes to you on a regular basis. This service will provide another way to keep in touch.

E-mail will also serve as a vehicle for any Acorn news. This will be an option to our regular correspondence address for sending your family news. As The Acorn's Correspondent, Gwen will forward any news you wish to share in The Acorn.

To Participate in the e-mail listing, contact Gwen at gbarnjjjj@aol.com.

Huth/Keller Heritage

FAMILY HISTORY:
Part III of Marty Johnson's heritage stories took us to the time when Henry and Laretta moved to Wirth Avenue in Ellet. That was in 1918. From 1918 to 1998 - 80 years of unrecorded history - a story that begs to be continued.

At some time during the past 80 years each of us was a child. Those born recently, and those yet to be born, never knew Henry and Laretta Huth (Mom and Pop, Grandma and Grandpa) and they never will - or will they?

You have a story to tell. You were there - you were sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives, mothers and fathers, you were children, nephews and nieces, aunts and uncles and cousins; you were friends and neighbors who played and fought, you went to school and church and were in trouble together. You were concerned and worried in times of war, relieved and grateful in times of peace; you were filled with joy and emptied with sorrow; there was excitement, there was fear and you shared laughter and tears.

As you continue to live out the comedy and drama of life, sharing your feelings, thoughts and desires will be good for you and may fill a chapter in our Book of Life. This is a real life story that never ends, a story that transcends time and space and generations. This is your story and only you can tell it. If you are 8, 10, 12, 16, 20, 30, 50, 90, years or more or anywhere in between let us hear from you.

Directory Changes

The names, addresses and phone numbers' section is becoming so full of changes that update pages are now being compiled. These update pages will be mailed to you with the next issue of The Acorn. At first we considered printing the revisions for the start of the 1999 year, but with so many changes, the fall updates will be helpful in addressing your Christmas cards. If you have any additions or corrections for us, please submit them before the end of August.

Skiing With The Dicks

by Mick Johnson (9)

This past March, I had the pleasure of skiing with Dick Huth and Dick Hill in the San Juan Mountains of Colorado. Skiing at the Purgatory Ski Resort has become a ritual that dates back over ten years. I've accompanied them on many of these annual trips. From previous Acorn reports, it would seem that these two have a grudge match to see who will be the master of the slopes. I'm happy to report that they are much to wise for mere machismo. Instead, this bantering motivates each to prepare for this event that is so valued by them. I've learned much from my time spent with them. Although their lives have taken distinctly different paths, they are both successful in their respective careers, and personal achievements. I can see why they share a common outlook. This outlook is conveyed in the way they approach skiing. That limits are self imposed. That you can control many aspects of your destiny. Their skiing is a metaphor for the way they look at life. Go with the flow. Find your balance. Trust your intuition. Negotiate the turns. Enjoy and live in the moment. I try to remember their example when I fall on my butt, pick myself up and keep skiing down the slopes of daily life.

Growing Oaks

FALL 1998: Look for Growing Oaks in the fall newsletter. Your kids' pictures and news are a welcomed addition to The Acorn. We look forward to sharing your family pride and follow how these children grow and develop into adults. Hope you continue to submit your child's news for the October newsletter.

Feedback

Comments on The Acorn's efforts are words of encouragement, that make our day. Jim Vuillemin (3) writes, "Great work on The Acorn! It's a good idea to keep track of all the nuts in our outfit; some of them aren't even cracked yet either". Jim also sent his wishes that everyone in the family be happy and well. Also, compliments from Patty Yingling (1) and Yvonne Davis (1). Our thanks to all of our supportive readers.

Whoops

Two n's for a missing m, a lost o and an s instead of a z equal goofs in our Spring, 1998 newsletter. Our apologies for letting this slip by our proofreaders.
